

APPLICATION TO TRANSJUSTICE COMMUNITY SCHOOL (SPRING 2019)

The Audre Lorde Project is a organization which centers the leadership of LGBTQIA black, brown and indigenous people of color. Folks of color who identify as trans*, nonbinary, Two-Spirit, agender, genderqueer, genderfluid or gender-diverse are strongly encouraged to apply to our TransJustice Community Schools.

We are honored to review your application.

Please read and answer the applicant questions in the form below to let us know more about you.

Name _____

Date _____

Do you identify as a person of color? If so, please check all that apply to your identity:

- Indigenous/Native/NDN
- Black | African | African-American
- West Indian | Caribbean
- Latinx/a/o | Latinx/a/o-American
- Middle Eastern
- Arab | Arab-American
- Asian | Asian-American
- Pacific Islander
- Mixed Race
- Self-identified _____

How do you identify your gender? Please check all identities that you personally claim:

- Transgender Woman
- Transgender Man
- Intersex
- Woman (Applies to women-identified folks regardless of transition-related care)
- Man (Applies to men-identified folks regardless of transition-related care)
- Genderqueer / Genderfluid
- Non-binary
- Agender
- Two-Spirit
- Self-identified _____

The Audre Lorde Project is determined to support our community members who require financial assistance to show up fully for the TransJustice Community School. Please self-determine and indicate your preference by choosing ONE below:

I wish to:

- Accept stipend     Refuse stipend

APPLICATION FOR TRANSJUSTICE COMMUNITY SCHOOL
SPRING 2019

Do you speak/write more than one language? Which languages?

I can speak:

- English
- Spanish
- French-Creole
- Mandarin
- Hindi
- Urdu
- American Sign Language
- Other _____

I can read/write:

- English
- Spanish
- French
- Mandarin
- Hindi
- Urdu
- Braille
- Other _____

Do you require any accommodations of which staff or instructors should be aware OR is there anything else you would like to share about yourself at this time?

APPLICATION FOR TRANSJUSTICE COMMUNITY SCHOOL
SPRING 2019

How long have you been a member of the Audre Lorde Project community? How did you learn about our TransJustice Community Schools?

Do you believe yourself to have teachable skills that would be valuable to others?
Name your skills!

Are you willing to facilitate/learn in skillshare workshops?

APPLICATION FOR TRANSJUSTICE COMMUNITY SCHOOL
SPRING 2019

Do you prefer to learn in a group or in pairs?

In your own words, how would you describe your political identity? What political issues personally affect your life?

What are things that you do to restore yourself (on your own, or with others)?

APPLICATION FOR TRANSJUSTICE COMMUNITY SCHOOL
SPRING 2019

Take a moment to ask yourself: how has your connections with other transgender or gender non-conforming people shaped the way that you understand yourself?

Think back to a time when someone told you that what you said affected them strongly. How did you feel to hear that your words had a significant impact?

Thank you for your interest in the Audre Lorde Project's TransJustice Community School!